

REPORT ON One Day Workshop on Copyright and Plagiarism

30th November 2019

Priyanka Bhuyan
Librarian i/c
Nanda Nath Saikia College, Titabar

Organized by Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) & Chakreshwar Saikia
Library, Nanda Nath Saikia College, Titabar-785630, Jorhat, Assam, India

Introduction

A one day workshop on "Copyright and Plagiarism" was conducted on 30th November 2019 in Nanda Nath Saikia College, Titabar, Jorhat, Assam in order to transforming the importance and issues of copyright and plagiarism among the academic community of the region. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Chakreshwar Saikia Library, Nanda Nath Saikia College jointly organized the workshop under the financial assistance of College Centre fund.

Participants profile

Total 67 participants from and around the region is participated in the workshop. Among the 67 participants 35 participants came from various parts of Assam and 32 are in house participants. The participants are mainly Teaching Faculty, Library and Information Science Professional and Research Scholar of various disciplines.

Description about the program

The workshop started at 10.15 a.m. with a welcome address by Organizing Secretary Priyanka Bhuyan (Librarian i/c, Nanda Nath Saikia College, Titabar). The workshop was presided by the Patron of the workshop Dr. Litoool Baruah (Chairperson of IQAC & Principal, Nanda Nath Saikia College, Titabar). He highlighted the importance of the workshop in the present informative World and knowledge society. He gave his sincere gratitude to Dr. Nazim Forid Islam, Convenor of the workshop and Coordinator of IQAC, Nanda Nath Saikia College, and to Priyanka Bhuyan, Organizing Secretary of the workshop for choosing such type of topic. He also gave his sincere gratitude to the participants and the prominent resource persons. After the inaugural speech of the Principal, the organizing secretary introduce the two prominent resource person namely, Dr. Utaapl Das, Deputy Librarian and Chairperson of CLISS, Dibrugarh University and Dr. Pallavi Gogoi, Librarian, Tinsukia College, Tinsukia with a fulam Gamusa.

The workshop is divided into two technical session. The first technical session start at 10.45 a.m. after the tea break. The first session on 'Copyright' was undertaken by Dr. Pallavi Gogoi , Librarian, Tinsukia College. She smoothly illuminate the concept of copyright, importance and issues of copyright, present scenario of copyright in India and abroad, introduce about copyrightable and non-copyrightable things, punishment regarding copyright violation, types of claim regarding copyright etc.

The second technical session on 'Plagiarism' starts at 12 noon, the session was undertaken by Dr. Utpal Das, Deputy Librarian, Dibrugarh University. It was a complete technical session. Dr. Das had tremendously showcases the plagiarism issue in the context of copyright violation. The resource person stress out the burning issue and actual picture of degrading utility of research outcome among the researchers and academicians in India by statistically comparing it with other countries like USA, China etc. He mention about the predatory journals that how these type of journals increase the plagiarism tendency among the scholars knowingly and unknowingly. Dr. Das had shown various measures taken by library and information science professionals to deal with plagiarism and also the various program of MHRD, Govt. of India for eradicating plagiarism. Dr. Das had shown some practical demo of the application software Turintin, Urkund for detecting plagiarized content in an article and vice versa. He demonstrate these plagiarism checker for the participants. He also gave some name of free plagiarism detecting software available online for personal use.

After the second technical session, there held a small discussion between resource persons and the participants. The participants asked various question regarding the topic and their personal experiences.

The workshop concluded with valedictory ceremony and certificate distribution to the participants, anchored by the organizing secretary. Finally, the workshop ended in 2.30 p.m. with a vote of thanks given by Dr. Konnaki Konwar, Member of IQAC, Department of Economics, Nanda Nath Saikia College, Titabar.

Feedback

The workshop organizing committee provides a feedback form along with the workshop kit. Among the 67 participants total 45 participants respond in the feedback form and returned it to the organizing committee. Among the 45 respondent 32 are strongly satisfied with the workshop, 11 are satisfied and 3 are not satisfied. All the respondent are highly satisfied with the organizing committee for choosing such an important topic. They are satisfied with the resource persons and beautiful environment of the college.

Future perspective

The IQAC and Chakreshwar Saikia Library with the cooperation of college authority, Nanda Nath Saikia College is looking forward to organize a workshop regarding in this topic for minimum 7 days with more technical detail and hands on practice.

P. Bhuyan
10/02/2020
Priyanka Bhuyan

Organizing Secretary

Nanda Nath Saikia College

[Signature]
10/2/2020
Dr. Nazim Forid Islam

Convenor

Nanda Nath Saikia College

[Signature]
12.11.2020
Dr. Litool Baruah

Patron

Nanda Nath Saikia College

Principal
N.N.Saikia College
Titabar

PHOTO GALLERY

