Principal's Desk

I am delighted to present the second edition (2024-25) of the newsletter of Nanda Nath Saikia College, published this year. The current issue stands as a testament to the vibrant activities, notable achievements and collective progress of our institution. Each page of the newsletter reflects the sincerity, talent and hard work of our students and faculty members, who continuously strive for excellence in academics, co-curricular activities and community engagement. Together, we are nurturing a learning environment enriched with discipline, creativity, compassion, critical thinking and a deep sense of responsibility towards society.

I extend my sincere appreciation and best wishes to the editorial team for their dedicated efforts in bringing out this publication.

Warm regards,
Dr. Suvangshu Dutta
Principal

Editorial Reflections:

The second edition of the N. N. Saikia College Newsletter continues the journey of celebrating the spirit and vivacity of the academic community of the college. Building upon the foundation of our inaugural issue, this edition reflects the dedication, creativity, and accomplishments of our students, faculty, and departments. More than a chronicle of events, it stands as a testament to our shared commitment to learning, growth, and excellence. Through these pages, we hope to inspire pride in our collective efforts and encourage every member of our college fraternity to continue contributing to the vibrant academic and cultural life of the institution. We present this edition with sincere gratitude and look forward to the continued support and encouragement of our readers.

Research Journal by Department of Assamese

The Department of Assamese of Nanda Nath Saikia College publishes a research journal titled Navonmesh, which serves as an academic platform for researchers to explore and develop their scholarly and creative potential in the fields of language, literature, and culture. The journal was initiated in the academic year 2012–2013 with the objective of fostering a culture of research and encouraging critical inquiry among scholars. Since its inception, Navonmesh has been contributing to the dissemination of research and the promotion of intellectual engagement within the academic community. Continuing this tradition, the 10th volume of the journal was published in 2025, reflecting the department's sustained commitment to advancing research and preserving linguistic and cultural heritage.
